18th-Century Painted Corner Cabinet, Trysil, Norway

DESCRIPTION

Late 1700s corner cabinet from Trysil, Norway. Handcrafted in pine with original painted surfaces in deep green and red tones, decorated with traditional floral motifs. The worn paint and carved details reveal centuries of use and quiet beauty. A rare survivor of rural Norwegian craftsmanship — humble in scale, yet full of presence. Its imperfect surfaces and honest patina embody the essence of Scandinavian Wabi-Sabi simplicity.
