

Charlotte Perriand (1903-1999) Pair of "Meribel" Chairs, France c. 1948

DESCRIPTION

Introducing this stunning pair of 'Meribel' chairs, designed by Charlotte Perriand (1903-1999) in collaboration with the French ski resort station Meribel in the late 1940s. These chairs are a perfect example of Perriand's iconic style and commitment to functionality. Crafted with ashwood and straw, the chairs showcase a perfect blend of form and function. The clean lines and simple construction give the chairs a timeless and elegant look that is sure to complement any interior design scheme. Their rich history and classic design make them a must-have for any furniture collector or lover of modernist design.

SPECIFICATIONS

Category	Chairs, Charlotte Perriand, Dining, Dining Chairs, Furniture, Inventory, Seating
-----------------	--