Karsten Krogh Hansen, "I Villmark", 16.34x12.20 in, Distemper on panel, Artist made frame, PVC glue finish, Norway 2024 Step into the vibrant world of Karsten Krogh-Hansen, a remarkable Norwegian artist whose work is capturing the imagination of art enthusiasts and critics alike. Born in 1997, Karsten is currently honing his craft at the prestigious Art Academy in Antwerp, Belgium, where he is pursuing a bachelor's degree in fine arts with a specialization in painting. Karsten's artistic journey is marked by a profound commitment to his medium. His paintings, characterized by their vivid color palettes and dynamic compositions, offer a fresh perspective on contemporary art. Each piece is a testament to his exceptional talent and his ability to convey deep emotion and complex narratives through the power of paint. This year, Karsten is one of the distinguished participants in the ANSA Juvenarte 2024 art exhibition and competition. Juvenarte is an esteemed annual digital cultural event organized by the Association of Norwegian Students Abroad (ANSA), showcasing the works of Norwegian art and design students studying outside of Norway. With a record 26 submissions in 2024, Karsten's paintings stood out, earning him a coveted spot in the exhibition.
